BAND BENEFIT TODAY

Maysville Brass Band To Hold Benefit Performance This Afternoon and Evening At the Gem.

This afternoon and evening the Maysville Brass Band will hold a benefit performance at the Gem Theater. Manager Mills has donated the proceeds of this pretty little theater to the band. Mr. Edward Broeze has also donated the profits of the butter-kissed popcorn machine to the band for the day.

The proceeds of the entertainment will go toward the fund started several weeks ago to purchase uniforms for the organization. More than a thousand tickets have been sold and a big program has been prepared. Owing to the number of tickets sold, the management asks that all that can possibly do so attend the afternoon performance so as to avoid being caught in the rush that is sure to come in the evening.

Basket Ball Notes

Friday afternoon while the first team is loafing, the second team of the Maysville High School basketball squad will journey to Germantown, where they will tackle the speedy team of the Germantown High School. Coach Dale, after the performance of the "scrubs" in the Mayslick double bill of last Friday night, thinks that it will take the average first team of the high schools in this vicinity to trim his second team. When it comes to team work it will be hard to find a team that has more accurate passing and goal shooting than the second team of Maysville. The following men will take the trip: Captain Cecil Dickson, Gordon Smoot, John Everett, Ellsworth Calhish, John Glascock, Charles Goff Downing, Stanley Parker, Coach Dale and Referee G. C. Mance. The game will be played on the outside court of the Germantown school, which will place the locals at a little disadvantage, but the superior team work, it is hoped, will overcome this.

Plans are under way for a series of games to decide the city championship. The most prominent contenders for this are the teams of the day and night High School. Both teams are in good condition, but frequent practice has made the day team a bit more speedy, but with a little more work, the night team will come out wonderfully. From the standpoint of experience the night boys have the edge on the day team and if the series is staged when they are in condition, no doubt they will take a majority of the games. If such a series is played the games will draw large crowds, as each team has a large backing. The outcome of the plans will be made known in a few days.

The Maysville High School first team will play the fast Dayton (Ky.) High School team in the M. H. S. gymnasium Friday, November 26. They hope to win from the Dayton quintet, who will play Augusta at Augusta Thanksgiving evening. Coach Dale has built several new formations about Wood, the star center of the locals, and will have something to fall back on if Captain Hampton, the mainstay of the Gold and White, should be guarded well, as was the case of the Mayslick game. Due to the fine guarding by Rees in the Mayslick game the star of the locals was kept from scoring and as the result M. H. S. won by a small margin.

NOTICE TO PASTORS AND CHURCH CLERKS.

MEETING TONIGHT

Chamber of Commerce Officers and Directors To Be Elected and Constitution Adopted—Every Member Urged To Be Present.

The Chamber of Commerce will hold its first formal meeting tonight in the courtroom at 7:30 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting is to elect a president, vice president, treasurer and five directors, and to adopt a constitution and program of work.

The president, vice president and treasurer are ex officio members of the board of directors. It is hoped that the splendid spirit of enthusiasm and interest, which has prevailed in the movement for the new Chamber of Commerce for Maysville will continue and that every member will be present at the meeting tonight. Every member is urged to be there and exercise their right to say who shall be the officers and what shall be the work outlined for the new organization.

Those members who have not yet sent in their referendums nominating the officers, are requested to do so at once. Any such nominations received at headquarters up to noon today will be considered in making up the list of nominees to be balloted on tonight. The three names receiving the highest number of referendum votes for president will be considered the nominees. The same rule will apply to vice president, treasurer and five directors. Floor nominations will also be allowed at the meeting tonight.

The members' council, the strong initiative body of the organization, will be organized during the early part of next week, when the different groups representing each business, trade or profession composing the membership, will be called together separately to select their representatives to the members' council, which will probably be composed of about forty or more representatives.

The meeting tonight is open to non-members as well as members, and the ladies of the community are also invited. The meeting is one that should be a matter of interest to all of Maysville's people and it is expected the courtroom will be well filled tonight.

HELD TO GRAND JURY

"Hoggy" or "Chicken" Lewis Held To December Term of Grand Jury—Petit Larceny.

Wednesday afternoon "Hoggy" or "Chicken" John Lewis, colored, of this city, who was arrested a few days ago by the local police on the charge of petty larceny, was held over to the December term of the Mason grand jury. Lewis was arrested a few days ago as he was about the dispose of a fine rooster to Mr. Marion Moore, the Wall street grocer. Upon further investigation the police found that the rooster looked very much like one that was lost by Patrick Breslin the same day that Lewis was arrested. Lewis was also held to the grand jury on the charge of stealing coal from the C. & O. railroad. It was thought at the time of his arrest that Lewis was insane, but at the trial Wednesday his answers indicated that he possessed his faculties. The insanity charge will probably not be pushed.

She was taken to the hospital at Paris, and was reported doing excellently when a turn for the worse came Saturday. She died Sunday. Burial yesterday at Nepton.

R. B. LOVEL'S WILL

A Magnificent Estate Disposed of To His Widow and Heirs

The will of Hon. R. B. Lovel was filed for probate in the Mason County Court here Wednesday, and is as follows:

I, Robert B. Lovel, of the city of Maysville, county Mason and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind, do make this my last will and testament, the same being in my own handwriting.

First—I appoint my beloved wife, Mattie S. Lovel, who has been true and faithful during the many years we have lived together, never failing in any particular to perform every duty of a true and faithful wife, the sole executrix of my estate, to act as such without being requested to give security on her bond, and it is my wish that she shall not be required to file any inventory or appraisement of my estate, as I have the utmost confidence in her integrity and honesty.

Second—I request that I be buried on my lot in the Maysville cemetery and that my funeral expenses be promptly paid and that suitable marker be erected at the head of my grave that all just claims against my estate, if any, be promptly paid.

Third—I will and bequeath to my said wife all my household and kitchen furniture of every description.

Fourth—I own fifty shares of stock in the State National Bank in Maysville, Ky., which is to be held as part of my estate during the lifetime of my wife, Mattie S. Lovel, she to receive during said time for her own use all the dividends of stock for her own use. After the death of said Mattie S. Lovel, I will that said stock shall be equally divided between the children of my son R. E. Lovel, that may be living at that time, to dispose of and do with as they choose.

Fifth—I will and bequeath to my wife, Mattie S. Lovel, to do with as she chooses during her natural life the house and lot occupied by me as a residence and business house on the northwest corner of Market and Third streets in Maysville, Ky., and after her death the same is to go to my son, R. E. Lovel and his heirs.

Sixth—The house now occupied by me as a storage warehouse on the west side of Market street in the city of Maysville I will to my son, R. E. Lovel.

Seventh—I will and bequeath to my son, R. E. Lovel, my entire stock of merchandise in the city of Maysville, that I may be possessed of at the time of my death, including all articles and fixtures pertaining to my business, including horses and delivery wagons and all book accounts. No appraisal or inventory of same to be requested.

Eighth—if no marker shall be erected at the head of the grave of my late son, John C. Lovel, his wife and child, who are buried in the Maysville cemetery, I hereby direct that my executrix have the same erected as soon after my death as she can have it done, and if no marker has been erected at the head of the grave of my late daughter, Julia L. Samuel, who is buried in the Flemingsburg cemetery, I direct one to be erected there also.

Ninth—After all of the foregoing bequests be carried out I will out of any estate there may be left that my executrix pay to Irma E. Rennekamp, my granddaughter, the sum of two thousand dollars. To my grandson, Robert Lee Sims, the sum of two thousand dollars, and to Robert L. Samuel, my grandson, the sum of two thousand dollars. I will to my grandson, Robert B. Lovel, Jr., son of R. E. Lovel, my gold watch, which I request that he never dispose of. My diamond pin I will to my wife, Mattie S. Lovel.

Tenth—I will to my son, R. E. Lovel, my tract of about fifty acres of land in the city of Superior, Wis.

Eleventh—After all the foregoing provisions of my will be carried out, I will that one-third of the residue of my estate go to my wife, Mattie S. Lovel, one-third to my son, R. E. Lovel, and the balance to the children that may be living of my son, R. E. Lovel.

It may seem to some that I have been too partial to my son and only living child, R. E. Lovel, in distribution of my estate, but I have taken into consideration the fact that he stayed with me and worked hard and assisted me very much in making what I have, therefore I do not consider that I have been unduly partial to him.

I request that my executrix see that my lot in the Maysville cemetery is properly cared for and that the grave of my father and mother in the cemetery at Concord be well taken care of. In making this will I reserve the right to make any changes or alterations I may deem necessary, previous to the time of my death.

I, Robert B. Lovel, of the city of Maysville and State of Kentucky, do acknowledge the foregoing to be my last will and testament, the same consisting of five pages and in my own handwriting.

Given under my hand this 8th day of February, 1915.

ROBERT B. LOVEL.

Mr. Victor Sears, formerly of this city, but now of Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting friends and relatives in Maysville. Victor sprung a surprise on his Maysville friends by bringing home a bride with him. His many friends extend congratulations.

INCREASED INTEREST

The revival spirit is beginning to show forth at the Third Street M. E. church, and the crowds are increasing in size and interest nightly. The evangelist, Rev. D. Wendell Brown, is drawing people to a nearer relation to Jesus Christ by his plain and unmistakable way in which he is preaching the Gospel. People like his preaching because he says things that are original and count for something, and in a way that other people do not—a way, however, that strikes home with conviction.

Wednesday night Rev. Brown spoke on working for the Master, and although his subject was old, he spoke in a way that put many new phases on the topic.

Come out tonight and get into the revival swing. Good music by a large choir.

WE SECOND MOTION

To Place Captain H. J. Cochran At Head of Chamber of Commerce.

The Ledger seconds the motion of the Bulletin to elect Captain H. J. Cochran as president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Captain Cochran is one of the most solid and conscientious business men in Maysville, and while he is deeply engrossed in private business, yet as the head of the Chamber of Commerce, we feel that he would pilot the "new ship" to a harbor of safety that would mean much for the future of Maysville and her citizens.

BRACKEN OFFICIAL COMMITS SUICIDE

Hon. James H. Ware, Master Commissioner of Bracken County, Takes Life At Brooksville Wednesday.

Wednesday morning about 9 o'clock, Hon. James H. Ware, Master Commissioner of Bracken county, took his life by shooting himself through the head four times.

Mr. Ware had a suite of rooms over the Equity Bank at Brooksville, and shortly after 9 o'clock some of the clerks heard shots in the rooms over the bank. Running upstairs, they found Mr. Ware lying on the floor in a pool of blood. Tightly gripped in his hand was an old-fashioned one-chamber pistol, and as four shots were fired it is thought that he unloaded and fired the gun four times before he finally sank into unconsciousness.

He was removed to his home in Brooksville where several physicians were called, but he was beyond medical aid, as several of the shots had pierced vital spots and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon he passed away.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter. The cause for Mr. Ware's rash act is not known, as he was enjoying the best of health and his financial affairs were in good shape. The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

Mr. Robert Bendel, of Newport, who has been spending several days with relatives in this city and county, left for his home Wednesday.

THE DOLE CHORUS.

They are at it again.

That is, the doleful chorus are already predicting dire consequences for this country after the close of the war in Europe.

They will have it that when peace is declared the foreign governments and manufacturers will be so hungry for markets that they will reduce the cost of labor to a considerable extent and thereby be able to sell their products in this and other countries for less than we can manufacture them.

They say, and then again they may not.

But suppose they do—what of it?

Is this nation dependent upon the goods we manufacture and sell in foreign markets?

Far from it.

If we never exported another article we would continue to live and thrive just the same.

In the United States there are over six hundred million acres of unreserved land waiting for the bite of the plow, and millions upon millions of the land popularly supposed to be under cultivation is only about half utilized.

The crying need of this country is not greater foreign markets for manufactured goods. It needs millions of men back upon the farms, where they belong and should never have left.

It needs a country wide movement for the development of every available acre of land from ocean to ocean.

It needs educational courses in intensified farming, in the raising of stock, in extracting from the mother earth the splendid sustenance that has lain dormant since the beginning of time.

If the doors of the entire world were closed to the United States we would continue to be a great and growing and prosperous country.

We have rich and fertile land, and that which sustains life must come from the land.

Practically everything that is necessary to our material welfare can be manufactured in this country from raw material that is produced in this country.

Every ounce of foodstuffs we require is grown in this country—enough and to spare.

In not a single material instance are we dependent upon the products of any foreign nation on the face of the globe.

True, the closing of many of our factories might reduce the number of millionaires in our country and might even force some of our gilded youths of fashion to turn their hands to honest toil through the shutting off of abnormal incomes.

I would force millions of workmen to leave their forges and lathes and return to the green fields of the farm.

It would be the means of converting this into the greatest agricultural country on the face of the globe.

And by getting back to nature we would reduce the outrageous cost of living that is now becoming a burden to half the people of our land.

Let the doleful chorus sing their tale of woe. It may come, or it may not.

But keep ever in mind the fact that the future of this country is in the soil and in the manhood of our people.

When the two join hands the wolf will slink from the door.

And still we are a nation of peace—today.

Fun—Well Done

An old retainer was showing a lady visitor around a studio during the artist's absence.

"He must find you a very useful person."

"Yes, madam. I orders his frames, stretches his canvass, wash all his brushes, sets his palette, and mixes his colors. All he's got to do is to shove 'em on."

"Father," said the minister's little daughter. "the paper says you officiated at the wedding clad in the traditional garb of the clergy." What does 'traditional' mean?"

"Traditional," my dear," answered the good man, as he looked at his cheap suit of black with a sigh "refers to something than has been handed down."—Chicago News.

Impecunious Lover—"Be mine, Amanda, and you will be treated like an angel."

"NEARLY A LADY" AT THE WASHINGTON FRIDAY

"Please, God, don't let him die, even if he does eat with a fork!"

Such is the ingenious, touching little plea Elsie Janis sends up as the Montana heroine in "Nearly a Lady," her latest Bosworth photoplay, when her English lord is laid low by high-waymen.

It hints at the fresh, genuine character of this western girl who, animated by the fascinating Elsie Janis, becomes one the most lovable girls ever seen upon the screen.

Why shouldn't churches advertise their Sunday services, and their mid-week meetings, and their socials and other public affairs? If they are worth attending (and they are) they are surely worth the expenditure of a dollar or so in bringing them to the attention of all of the people. We are strongly of the opinion that if the churches in this town would contract for a display space in this paper each week and then announce their subjects for sermons, with a key to their import and application to current events, together with any other special features of the day, there would be a greater interest taken in church affairs, with a consequent increase in attendance and financial receipts. Times are not as they were fifty year ago, and the church that would fill its pews must adopt modern methods of keeping in touch with the people. Publicity will do it.

Buy it in Mayville this Christmas! Keep prosperity in this town! What better slogan could we have for a progressive community spirit? Every body wants to see this town prosper, and we all want to share in the fruits of that prosperity. Even the fellow who habitually sends out of town for his own goods wants his full quota of the riches that are accumulated through the thrift and husbandry of his fellow citizens. Producing and selling the surplus abroad and then keeping our money at home by buying from home dealers will add many thousands of dollars to the money in circulation in this community. It is the sure way of meeting prosperity with open arms and gathering in our share and a little more for good luck. Our interests and our duty are in Mayville. Let's keep prosperity in this town!

You young fellows who have your eyes focussed upon the bright lights and the gaieties of the big cities should get your stub pencils and do a little sum in addition. If you go the way of others and drift to the city you will naturally annex a "best girl." She will want you to take her to the theater once a week, and that will cost $4 for the tickets, $5 or so for the taxi and $2 or $4 for the supper after the performance. Then frequently she will want an automobile ride on Sunday and the car and chauffeur will touch you up to the tune of $2 to $4 an hour. A box of candy and a few sodas and sundries and a bouquet will eat up another $3. Your dancing lessons will cost you $30 a season, and a spiked-tail suit will wipe out another $40, with your dancing pumps absorbing at least a "V." Of course, it's great sport while it lasts, but the first thing you know you'll be yelling your head off for the old man to send you carfare home and the price of a full stomach before you start. Yep, city life is great in more ways than one.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS TODAY.
November 18.

William James Flynn, chief of the United States Secret Service, who is one of the busiest officials under the federal government at the present time, is 48 years old today. "Bill" Flynn is the man who is running down the plots of foreigners in the United States to foment strikes, to blow up munition works, and to fire ships engaged in foreign commerce. Never before in the history of America has there arisen such an acute situation. All the prejudices and secret devilry that characterizes European government has been initiated in America, and it is Flynn's difficult job to thwart them. He has a crew of picked men on the job and many of the alleged plotters are in jail or indicted for their work. Flynn's activities ordinarily are centered in running down counterfeiter. But he is big enough to cope with any situation, and has the full confidence of all the government officials. Chief Flynn was born in New York on November 18, 1867. His education was gained in the public schools. He joined the Secret Service in 1897, and has been connected with the department almost continuously. He has made a wonderful record, particularly since he was made chief in 1912. He has made a study of criminals and their methods, and has the faculty of running down clues and handling large crews of investigators.

SPECIALISTS

We are specialists in glasses. Why pay $10 to have your eyes examined for glasses when the man who makes the examination doesn't know enough about glasses to make them? If he can't understand a single lens, how do you expect him to know about a complete refracting system like the eye? Better see Simpson about your glasses and have them made right. Your family physician can give you all the medicine you need. If an operation is necessary he will tell you who is competent to do it.

Simpson and the family physician make a strong combination when it comes to eye troubles.

NAVAL WEDDING AT OAKLAND.

Oakland, Cal., November 18.—Miss Elizabeth Henry Munford, a granddaughter of the late M. H. Clark, of Virginia, the last surviving member of the cabinet of Jefferson Davis, will be the bride of Lieut. Augustin T. Beauregard, U. S. N., in a naval wedding here today. The groom is a nephew of the famous Confederate general of that name, and is aide to Admiral McLean.

Pastor Ding, traveling secretary of the Chinese Student Volunteer Movement, has had remarkable success in his evangelistic work in the cities of China. In Ninantan more than 1,200 inquirers were enrolled, while at Changsha the number was more than 1,300.

BANDMASTER CREATURE WEDS.

Providence, R. I., November 18.—Giuseppe Creature, the bandmaster, will today take as his bride Miss Rosina Maria de Marinis, of New York, a journalist and playwright. She is only 18 and the conductor is 43. Rev. Francis W. Gibbs, of the First Universalist church of Providence, will perform the ceremony. Creature was divorced ten years ago, and he has waited for the girl to grow up. She is the daughter of his first cousin, and he used to bounce her on his knee.

PUTTING THE RED CROSS ON WAR FOOTING.

Washington, November 18.—The medical and nursing and other Red Cross resources of the country are nearing completion, and before long the Red Cross will be on a war footing for immediate mobilization in the event of a national crisis. Already 7,000 graduate nurses, the pick of the country, are enrolled, and the medical staff is well organized.

The most important additional action is the establishment of supply depots in accessible centers, and this is being done. For this purpose the country has been divided into twelve districts, each with a mass of supplies, which would also be the point of mobilization in each district.

In the event of war, the Red Cross will be the only volunteer society which will be authorized to render aid to the land and naval forces of the country, and all other societies rendering such aid must, under Presidential orders, do so through the Red Cross.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

Some People We Know, and We Will Profit By Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event. It took place in Maysville. Not in some faraway place. You are asked to investigate it. Asked to believe a citizen's word. To confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed at home is more worthy of confidence. Than one you know nothing about. Endorsed by unknown people. Mrs. Dora Mefford, Maysville, says: "I had been feeling poorly for some time before I knew that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before long I felt stronger and better and I slept good at night."

RIVER IMPROVEMENTS

Associations and Commissions Meet To Ask For Further Inland Waterway Aid From Congress.

Cincinnati, O., November 18.—The annual convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association opened here this morning. Delegations from Pittsburgh, Louisville and other cities in this section are present. Boards of Trade and Commerce are urging a campaign to bring about a more favorable attitude toward waterway improvements on the part of Congress. It is pointed out that from the lump appropriation of twenty-five millions for waterways made in the last Congress after the rivers and harbors bill had been defeated, Ohio river improvement projects were apportioned $2,300,000, a sum declared to be wholly inadequate.

St. Louis, Mo., November 18.—The Mississippi River commission will meet for its usual fall session on board the steamer Mississippi here tomorrow morning. The members will make an inspection trip to New Orleans and will give public hearings at points along the route on matters connected with river improvements.

WISCONSIN PLANS WHITE PLAGE COUNT.

Milwaukee, Wis., November 18.—The annual convention of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association opened here today, and the chief interest of the delegates centers in the "tuberculosis week" in Wisconsin, from December 6 to 12, during which every person is asked to be examined by a physician for evidence of tubercular infection.

HOME TRADING.

We presume there is not a business or professional man in this town who is not an ardent advocate of home trading. So are we. And in this connection we want to suggest that it might be in keeping with such doctrines for certain of our worthy business men to remember that this paper has an up-to-date job printing plant and is prepared to do all kinds of printing. To say the least, it is rather disconcerting for us to urge the people to buy their goods at home and then run across a piece of printing for some local business house that has been ordered from out of town. The citizen who makes a practice of buying his goods from outside sources is injuring the business interests of this town. And the business man who has his stationery printer in other cities is taking a slap at the newspaper that speaks up in his behalf. Consistency? Yes, of a kind.

FILL DITCHES AND GULLIES

Stones Are About Best Material for Filling Depressions—Water Is Permitted to Drain Through.

(By R. L. THROCKMORTON, Kansas Experiment Station.) The little ditches and gullies that form on rolling farms grow rapidly if neglected, and deep channels with steep sides result. By stopping the flow of the water in these small streamlets with such material as straw, brush and stones, they can be made gradually to fill themselves. Such obstructions cause the soil to be deposited and the ditch will be filled up back of the barrier. If measures are not taken to prevent the small depressions on a slope from growing, they rapidly enlarge in three directions, becoming deeper, wider and longer.

The best way to stop up small ditches and make them fill up is to make a dam of stones. Stones are about the best material for this purpose, because they collect the sediment and at the same time let the water drain through, and a water hole is not formed.

When a ditch is very shallow, only a few inches deep, a board held in place with stakes is often sufficient to stop further erosion. Straw is also very good for these shallow ditches. It is very effective in catching the soil, but is sometimes washed out by a hard rain. Cornstalks are even better than straw. Brush can be used, too, but is hardly dense enough when used alone. Straw and brush together are better than either alone. If cement dams are built, some way must be provided for the water to get through, or else a pond will be formed. Cement dams are really not worth the extra cost.

METHODS FOR FEEDING MEAL

Practical Experience Has Shown That It Is Most Economical to Mix Meal With Ensilage.

The plan for cutting the fodder or hay and mixing the bran, millfeed and cornchop with it and feeding it moistened is preferable, in our opinion, to any other method, says a writer in Baltimore American. By feeding meal dry or made into dough some portion of it will pass into the fourth stomach and escape only partially digested. The plan of mixing the meal with water and making a thick slop is preferable to feeding it dry or in a doughy state.

The meal then passes, as it does when mixed with the feed, into the rumen or paunch, whence it is passed, after undergoing rumination, into the reticulum or second stomach, in a condition fitted for perfect digestion in the third and fourth stomachs and the bowels.

If ensilage is fed, mix the meal with the ensilage. This method of feeding we have followed for a number of years with milk cows and fattening cattle, and after careful tests, know from practical experience that it is the most economical way to feed meal. There is no waste of feed and a larger quantity of milk may be given.

Extra Care in Fall.

As eggs are highest in price from October to January, it is important that the fowls be given extra attention in fall and winter so they will produce the most eggs during this period. On stormy days the fowls should be kept in the house. They should be fed three times a day, in the morning, at noon and late in the afternoon.

ARMY WEDDING AT ATLANTA.

Atlanta, Ga., November 18.—The marriage of Miss Rosalie Davis, an Atlanta belle, and Lieut. Benjamin M. Bailey, U. S. A., will be a brilliant event this evening. The ceremony will take place at the First Baptist church, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Many guests have come from distant points, and a large group of army officers are attending.

The agent of the American Bible Society in Petrograd writes that since the war began and the vodka shops were closed the sale of Bibles and Testaments has greatly increased in Russia.

MAJORS SEEK AID FOR UNEMPLOYED.

Babany, N. Y., November 18.—In order to keep the number of unemployed in this State down to the lowest possible figures this winter, a committee of mayors representing the more important cities of the State met here today to consider steps that may be taken to obtain employment for some of the many thousands now idle. Many experts on unemployment will give their advice. The outlook is for better conditions than those which obtained last year.

Hundreds of Customers Waiting For You

Do you know that in this town and farming community there are many hundreds of families who buy a majority of their goods in Maysville, from some merchant or other?

Do you know that YOU might just as well have a large percentage of this business? And do you know that this business is SPOT CASH because the people HAVE THE MONEY and are NOT AFRAID TO SPEND IT?

Do you know that to get this business you must FIRST REACH THE PEOPLE and let them know WHAT YOU HAVE?

The buyers in this community are an intelligent class of people, and they insist on knowing something about the goods before they part with their money.

Your advertisement in THE LEDGER will appeal to them because it is THEIR OWN PAPER, and because they KNOW that we do not accept questionable advertisements at any price.

The holiday season, a harvest for merchants, is now on and our people will be buying in large quantities.

Because we feel that you are keen on getting a goodly slice of this business a representative of THE LEDGER will take the liberty of calling upon you within a few days, at which time he will illustrate to you more fully the advantages to be derived from placing a portion of your holiday advertising before a class of people who buy liberally and have the money with which to pay.

Very truly yours,

FEDERAL COURT

United States Judge Cochran decided Wednesday the South Covington & Cincinnati Street Railway Company, operating the surface lines in Covington, held a perpetual franchise from that city. He issued an order enjoining the city from disposing of the street car franchise and from interfering with the operation of the cars by the present holding company. The decision will be appealed immediately to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals by City Solicitor Fred Schmitz, of Covington, he announced, and will be carried to the United States Supreme Court.

A mandamus suit was filed Tuesday by Charles Schmalz, assignee of Anna S. Taft, executrix of the estate of the late David Sinton, against Carter county, Kentucky, for the recovery of $99,702. The action was brought to compel the Fiscal Court of Carter county to levy an ad valorem tax on the taxable property of that county to redeem bonds held by the plaintiff. The bonds were purchased many years ago by the late David Sinton, and it seems that no provision had been made for their redemption. He went into the United States Court in 1889 and secured a judgment for $47,485.60 against Carter county, which with the accumulated interest amounts to the sum asked, $99,702.

The jury in the case of Frances Griffith, administratrix, against the C. & O. railroad for $40,000 damages for the death of Alvin Griffith, C. & O. engineer who was killed by a mail crane at Mentor, Ky., returned a verdict at noon Wednesday awarding the plaintiff $5,166. In instructing the jury in the case, Judge Cochran in Covington Wednesday, gave an exposition of the law pertaining to the case. The jury members were told that they must not consider the sufferings of the widow and family over the death of the husband and father. The court held that the employee of a railroad engaged as engineer must assume certain risks. Judge Cochran dwelt upon what might be construed as contributory negligence.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL.

The coroner's jury met Wednesday evening in the office of Squire Fred W. Buser and held an inquest to ascertain the cause of the death of Leslie Lewis, who was killed by a falling electric light pole Tuesday afternoon. After hearing the evidence of the witnesses, the jury handed in the following verdict:

We, the jury, find that Leslie Lewis, of the Pligtown precinct, died November 16, 1915, in the Pligtown precinct, near the Standard Oil Works, Mason county, by being struck by a falling pole which he was assisting in erecting while in the employ of the Maysville Public Service Company. The accident happened in the presence of the following witnesses: Tom Sweet, Henry Moore, John Staker, James Hunt and Ed Weber, and that from their testimony we learn that the accident was unavoidable.

HOW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Wednesday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock, several persons who were standing on Front street witnessed a narrow escape from death. James Collins, a negro employed on the dam, attempted to catch a freight train that was moving along at the rate of about twenty miles an hour. Collins succeeded in grabbing the iron bar on the side of the car with his hands, but his feet slipped in the loose track ballast and he lost his footing and was dragged along by the swiftly moving train in front of Coughlin & Company's feed stable, to the foot of Sutton street, where he succeeded in gaining his balance and mounted the train. His clothes about the lower limbs were torn to bits by the sharp edges of the loose stones over which he was dragged. Outside of this and losing his hat, which was ground to pieces under the wheels and a bad scare, Collins was unhurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rohmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mullikin and Mrs. M. E. Mullikin, are visiting in Falmouth this week.

Mr. H. P. Sammons, of Carlisle, was here on business Wednesday.

STATEMENT

Of National Banks To Contain Sworn Certification of Rate of Interest Charged.

In the next "statement of condition," national banks will be expected to send to the Controller of the Currency a sworn statement certifying to the rate of interest charged. Since the beginning of the present administration, the national banks have been called upon with regularity to give additional information and to work out new balances and totals in accordance with plans in the Treasury Department not thoroughly understood by the bankers. The new order for a sworn statement as to interest rates is in line with a recent address by John Skelton Williams, in which he criticized banks which charge usurious interest, and declared an intention of holding bankers to account. Six per cent is the legal rate in Kentucky, and the rate generally charged in this city and county. On account of the character of loans made in other parts of the State, it is said that a higher rate is charged and that the new order will compel many banks to forego a considerable percentage in their profits.

Rev. Denham H. Quinn, of Ohio Episcopal Diocese, To Be Presbyterian Pastor.

The Rev. Denham H. Quinn, of the Protestant Episcopal church of the diocese of Ohio, appeared before the Louisville Presbytery, and, after being examined as to his views on theology and church government, was formally received into the ministry of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Quinn was ordained to the ministry of the Episcopal church in 1909, and for two years has been rector of the Church of the Epiphany. He resigned from the ministry of the Episcopal church because his doctrinal views did not harmonize with those of his denomination.

Mr. Quinn was born in Arabia, was reared in London, England, and is a graduate of the Theological School of Columbia University, in New York. He has two brothers in the British army, one of whom was recently wounded in the fighting in the Dardanelles, and the other is now a prisoner at Antwerp. Mr. Quinn will do supply work while taking a post-graduate course in Louisville Seminary.

RIVER NEWS

The towboat J. T. Hatfield left its tow Sunday tied to the bank at Ironton and returned to Cincinnati for more barges. The light draught boat, Ruba Reeve, is taking the tow to the Kanawha coal fields.

There are about 100 loaded barges of coal in the mouth of the Great Kanawha river ready to start to market on the first rise. Several Pittsburgh barges owned by the Combine have been loaded in Kanawha river for shipment South.

The Standard Oil Company's fleet passed Hickman this week en route to Memphis, carrying in its tow 10,000 barrels of gasoline. This is the first big shipment from their Northern refineries to pass Hickman en route down the river. It is said the company plans to build two more large towboats for this service.

At a meeting of steamboat men at Memphis recently it was decided to build a dike a short distance from the mouth of Wolf river to divert the current against the accumulation of mud and sand, which would wash out the channel. A sandbar has formed at this point, which is giving steamboat men much concern.

The Gallipoli Tribune says: We are informed that Supervising Inspector Daniel Daugherty says there is no law or recent ruling that compels a Federal steamboat inspector to inspect a boat on Sunday. We have been informed that it was compulsory. An inspection on Sunday occurred here several weeks ago, but, according to Daugherty, it was optional on the part of the inspectors whether or not they performed the work on the Sabbath. It is not likely it will be done soon again on Sunday, if we are correctly informed.

One of the most popular banners carried in the "Chicago Dry" parade had on it the three words, "Dry or Die."
